

House, respectively, but applicable only with respect to the procedure to be followed in the case of resolutions described in this subsection. This subsection supersedes other rules only to the extent that they are inconsistent therewith, and is enacted with full recognition of the constitutional right of either House to change the rules (so far as those relate to the procedure of that House) at any time, in the same manner, and to the same extent as in the case of any other rule of such House.

“(c) ACCESS AND VALID RIGHTS.—

“(1) Nothing in this title shall be construed as terminating or granting to the Secretary the right to terminate any valid lease, permit, license, or right of subsistence use or of access if the lease, permit, license, or right—

“(A) was in existence on the date of enactment of the Marine Sanctuaries Amendments of 1984, with respect to any national marine sanctuary designated before that date; or

“(B) is in existence on the date of designation of any national marine sanctuary, with respect to any national marine sanctuary designated after the date of enactment of the Marine Sanctuaries Amendments of 1984.

“(2) The exercise of a lease, permit, license, or right is subject to regulation by the Secretary consistent with the purposes for which the sanctuary is designated.

16 USC 1435.

SEC. 305. APPLICATION OF REGULATIONS AND INTERNATIONAL NEGOTIATIONS.

“(a) REGULATIONS.—The regulations issued under section 304 shall be applied in accordance with generally recognized principles of international law, and in accordance with treaties, conventions, and other agreements to which the United States is a party. No regulation shall apply to a person who is not a citizen, national, or resident alien of the United States, unless in accordance with—

“(1) generally recognized principles of international law;

“(2) an agreement between the United States and the foreign state of which the person is a citizen; or

“(3) an agreement between the United States and the flag state of a foreign vessel, if the person is a crewmember of the vessel.

“(b) NEGOTIATIONS.—The Secretary of State, in consultation with the Secretary, shall take appropriate action to enter into negotiations with other governments to make necessary arrangements for the protection of any national marine sanctuary and to promote the purposes for which the sanctuary is established.

16 USC 1436.

“SEC. 306. RESEARCH AND EDUCATION.

“The Secretary shall conduct research and educational programs as are necessary and reasonable to carry out the purposes and policies of this title.

16 USC 1437.

“SEC. 307. ENFORCEMENT.

“(a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall conduct such enforcement activities as are necessary and reasonable to carry out this title. The Secretary shall, whenever appropriate, utilize by agreement the personnel, services, and facilities of other Federal departments,
