ART. 71. Exclusions from gross income.—The term "gross income" as used in the Act does not include those items of income exempted by statute or by fundamental law. The exemption of such income should not be confused with the reduction of taxable income by the application of allowable deductions. Every person owning (1) obligations of a State, Territory, any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, or (2) securities issued under the provisions of the Federal Farm Loan Act or of such Act as amended, or (3) obligations of the United States or its possessions, must, however, submit in his income tax return a statement showing the number and amount of such obligations and securities owned and the income received therefrom.

ART. 72. Proceeds of insurance—Compensation—Pensions.—The proceeds of life insurance policies, paid upon the death of an insured to his estate or to any beneficiary (individual, partnership, or corporation), directly or in trust, are excluded from the gross income of the beneficiary. See article 541. The amount received by an insured under life insurance, endowment, or annuity contracts as a return, without interest, of premiums paid by him therefor is excluded from his gross income. See article 47. The amounts received by an insured or his estate or other beneficiaries through accident or health insurance or under workmen's compensation acts as compensation for personal injuries or sickness are excluded from the gross income of the insured, his estate and other beneficiaries. Any damages recovered by suit or agreement on account of such injuries or sickness are similarly excluded from the gross income of the
